Honorees for inaugural Tulsa's Fast 40 named

OKLAHOMA CITY (JR) – The Journal Record's inaugural list of Tulsa's Fast 40 honorees includes businesses from industries including energy, technology and health care as well as companies offering a range of services from baby-sitting to digital forensics.

The companies will be honored on Nov. 8 at the Tulsa's Fast 40 event, designed to recognize the 40 fastest-growing privately held companies in the Tulsa metropolitan area.

"The Tulsa business community is growing and we are looking forward to recognizing 40 of the fastest-growing privately held businesses at our upcoming event," said Mary Mélon, president and publisher of The Journal Record. "Highlighting the achievements of these Tulsa businesses who have found creative ways to thrive and grow is important as well as inspirational to the rest of the community."

The Tulsa Metro Chamber is the presenting sponsor for the event. Additional sponsors include Bank of Oklahoma, Cox Business, Ernst & Young and McAfee & Taft.

The 40 honorees will be featured in the Tulsa's Fast 40 publication produced by and published in The Journal Record and will be recognized at the awards dinner at the Hyatt Regency Tulsa, 100 E. Second St.

The reception starts at 6 p.m., followed by dinner at 7 p.m. Individual seats are $125 and tables for 10 are $1,250. Reservations can be made by contacting Lesley Martin at lesley.martin@journalrecord.com. For information, visit www.journalrecord.com/tulsas-fast-40.

Qualifying companies are for-profit, privately owned, headquartered and operated in the Tulsa metro area. Companies cannot be a holding company, regulated bank or utility. In addition, applicants must have been in business for three years and a minimum of nine months during the base calendar year of 2008. The companies are ranked based on percentage of revenue growth from 2008-2010.
